Database Screenshots

Admin handle database from backend.

The screenshot shows a web browser window for the H2 Database Console at the URL `localhost:8080/h2-console/test.do?jsessionid=91fa3d187d10ac2fc3930126f0869f31`. The page has a light blue header bar with the title "Database Screenshots". Below it is a white header bar with the text "Admin handle database from backend." in bold black font. The main content area is a login form titled "Login". It includes fields for "Saved Settings" (set to "Generic H2 (Embedded)"), "Setting Name" (set to "Generic H2 (Embedded)"), "Driver Class" (set to "org.h2.Driver"), "JDBC URL" (set to "jdbc:h2:mem:arvi"), "User Name" (set to "sa"), and "Password" (empty). There are "Save" and "Remove" buttons for settings, and "Connect" and "Test Connection" buttons for the database. A green status bar at the bottom of the form area displays the message "Test successful".
